

TAGALOG WEEK 1 STUDY GUIDE

Introductions, greetings, feelings, school, work, and family

Learning Outcomes

- Greet someone and state how you feel.
- Introduce yourself and say where you are from.
- Describe where and what you study or where you work.
- Name common family roles.
- Describe a person with a simple adjective-first sentence.

Greetings

Tagalog	English	Usage note
Kumusta?	How are you?	Kamusta? is also common in everyday writing.
Magandang umaga.	Good morning.
Magandang hapon.	Good afternoon.
Magandang gabi.	Good evening.

Feelings

Tagalog	English	Usage note
Ayos lang ako.	I am okay.	Okay lang ako is also natural and common.
Masaya ako.	I am happy.
Malungkot ako.	I am sad.
Inaantok ako.	I am sleepy.
Nasasabik ako.	I am excited.	Often expresses anticipation.
Gutom ako.	I am hungry.
Na-stress ako.	I am stressed.	Stressed ako is common Taglish; nai-stress ako also appears in use. Educator review remains open.
Pagod ako.	I am tired.

Introductions

Tagalog	English	Usage note
Ano ang pangalan mo?	What is your name?
Ako si ____.	I am ____.	Use this before a personal name.
Taga-saan ka?	Where are you from?
Taga-____ ako.	I am from ____.

SCHOOL, WORK, AND LEAVE-TAKING

Week 1 questions and useful responses

School and Work

Tagalog	English	Usage note
Saan ka nag-aaral?	Where do you study?
Nag-aaral ako sa ____.	I study at ____.
Ano ang inaaral mo?	What are you studying?
Nag-aaral ako ng ____.	I am studying ____.	A natural pattern for a subject or field.
Saan ka nagtatrabaho?	Where do you work?
Nagtatrabaho ako sa ____.	I work at ____.
Ano ang trabaho mo?	What is your job?
____ ako.	I am a/an ____.	Example: Inhinyero ako. You can also say: Ang trabaho ko ay ____.

Leave-Taking

Tagalog	English	Usage note
Salamat!	Thank you!
Paalam!	Goodbye!
Ingat ka!	Take care! (one person)
Ingat kayo!	Take care! (plural or respectful)

Response Building

Nag-aaral ako sa ____. I study at ____.

Nag-aaral ako ng ____. I am studying ____.

Nagtatrabaho ako sa ____. I work at ____.

____ ako. I am a/an ____.

FAMILY AND DESCRIPTION PATTERNS

Vocabulary, adjectives, and sentence-building

Family

Tagalog	English	Usage note
Nanay / Ina	Mother	Nanay is common and conversational; Ina is more formal.
Tatay / Ama	Father	Tatay is common and conversational; Ama is more formal.
Kuya	Older brother	Also used respectfully for an older male.
Ate	Older sister	Also used respectfully for an older female.
Bunso	Youngest child or sibling
Kapatid	Sibling
Lolo	Grandfather
Lola	Grandmother
Tiyo / Tito	Uncle	Tito is very common in everyday speech.
Tiya / Tita	Aunt	Tita is very common in everyday speech.
Pinsan	Cousin

Family Description Pattern

Adjective + si + person

Mabait si Nanay. Mother is kind.

You may also hear: Si Nanay ay mabait. This lesson practices the adjective-first pattern.

Useful Adjectives

Tagalog	English
Mabait	kind
Maganda	beautiful
Gwapo	handsome
Masaya	happy
Matalino	smart
Masipag	hardworking
Nakakatawa	funny
Matangkad	tall
Mabuti	good
Palakaibigan	friendly or sociable

PRACTICE AND MODEL

A complete introduction and review method

Five-Sentence Model

Ako si Maya.

Taga-Cebu ako.

Nag-aaral ako sa isang unibersidad.

Nag-aaral ako ng Tagalog.

Masaya ako.

Practice Method

- Read each phrase aloud three times.
- Cover the Tagalog and retrieve it from English.
- Type or write the phrase without copying.
- Describe five people using different adjectives.
- Review missed phrases tomorrow.

Language Note

This is a foundational Tagalog lesson. Usage and course naming may vary by audience, region, and register. Human review remains important as the curriculum expands.